Sonus Networks is providing guidance with respect to Last Order Date (LOD) for the X401/e platform. Customer orders will be fulfilled by Sonus on a first come first serve bases only. Should inventory levels be exhausted prior to the published LOD, Sonus retains the right to reject the order.

Sonus Networks is providing End of Support Life (EOSL) guidance for the X401/e platforms. Sonus will provide 5 years of support from the EOPS date after which time Sonus will no longer provide any support or RMAs for the EOSL Product. In the event that 3rd party components used in the manufacture of the X401/e are EOPS prior to the stated EOSL dates described by Sonus, such replacement parts will continue to be provided only as may be available to the best of Sonus's ability during the applicable Sonus support period for the Product.
